WHAT ARE EU PROGRAMMES?

Multi-annual programmes aiming to support EU policies implementation and strengthen cooperation between countries in different area: research & innovation, education, culture, health, environmental protection, custom and taxation, justice etc.

WHO IS MANAGING EU PROGRAMMES?

Managed by EC services or its executive agencies, or dedicated structures at national level

ELIGIBLE COUNTRIES

- EU Member States
- + non- EU Member States

CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION TO EU PROGRAMMES

In order to become fully eligible, the government needs to express interest for participation, sign the agreement with EC, and pay the entry ticket for each EU programme for which the agreement has been signed.

WHY PARTICIPATION IN EU PROGRAMMES IS IMPORTANT?

EU Programmes as complementary instrument of IPA Assistance give support to government and nongovernment bodies to implement SAA obligations and make them familiar with working methods and EU policies.

Participation on these programmes, apart from direct economic benefit, also provide opportunity to establish partnership with applicants from other countries, create networks, and strength cross border cooperation.
